

Dear Unison Caerphilly Members,

Shortly you will receive ballot papers for the Unison NEC (National Executive Council) Elections. The NEC is the body responsible for implementing UNISON policy and delivering on the union's objectives and priorities.

The Branch Executive Committee would like to encourage you to vote and they would like to let you know who they nominated via a democratic vote in February.

NEC Cymru Wales Female seat (1 vote) – Lianne Dallimore

NEC Cymru Wales Male seat (1 vote) – Mark Fisher

NEC Cymru Wales Low Paid Reserve seat (1 vote) – Sian Stockham

NEC Local Government Female seats (2 votes) - Emma Garson & Sarah Feeney

NEC Local Government Male seat (1 vote) – Sean Fox

NEC Local Government General seat (1 vote) – James Minto

NEC Black Members Female seat (2 votes) – Manjula Kamari & Nimisha Trivedi

NEC Black Members Male seat (1 vote) – Hugo Pierre

NEC Black Members Low Paid Reserve seat (1 vote) – Julia Mwaluke

NEC Disabled Female seat (1 vote) – Neelo Farr

NEC Disabled Members General seat (1 vote) – Angela Hamilton

NEC Young Members female seat (1 vote) – Isla Watson

NEC Young Members general seat (1 vote) – Jess McGuire

They all have a fantastic work ethic and great track record for putting members and Wales first.

If you haven't received your ballot paper by 13 May 2021, please contact the ballot helpline operated by UNISON Direct, on the following telephone number: 0800 0 857 857.

Kind Regards
